

Approved For Release 2002/09/05 : CIA-RDP91-00682R000100080004-2
~~STATINTL~~ Tuesday - 12 October 1948

1. McCarran - ☐

2. Mr. Houston and Mr. Pforzheimer discussed with Mr. Larkin and Mr. Headock, of the Office of Secretary of Defense, possible revisions of the Espionage Law. It was agreed that Mr. Larkin talk with Mr. Peyton Ford, The Assistant to the Attorney General, as to the present status of the Omnibus Bill to revise the Espionage Laws, and indicate the opposition of the National Military Establishment and CIA to certain of its provisions regarding amendments to Sec. 605 of the Federal Communications Act requiring the registration of all those who had received training in foreign intelligence and espionage systems.

STATOTHR

3. Spoke with Mr. Davis, of the staff of the Senate Judiciary Committee, regarding the case of ☐ an applicant for permanent entry into the United States. Discrepancies having arisen between the report furnished by CIA and the information furnished by the Department of Justice, a recheck on information was requested in order to confirm it or reconcile the differences.